that of the other two Courts, and there are more minor cases in the Bangalore Dt. than in the others. It does not however appear necessary to increase the establishment by 3 hands as proposed further this does not seem to be any justification for sanctioning clerks on grades higher than those required by the Dt. Judge himself.

REVISION OF THE ESTABLISHMENT OF THE DISTRICT COURT, BANGALORE.

Paper under disposal.

The present clerical establishment of the District and Sessions Court, Bangalore, consists of only 11 hands, which is less than the number employed in the Subordinate Judge's Court and in some of the Munsiffs' Courts. It has been represented by the District Judge that the Court work has increased all round, that the exclusive jurisdiction of the Court over minors' cases has thrown additional work and responsibility on the establishment, and that it has, in addition, to attend to the statistical and administrative work, which is heavier in the Bangalore Division than in the other two Divisions.

2. The Judges of the Chief Court consider that the establishment is under-manned, and have accordingly recommended the addition of 3 hands as specified below:-

One clerk on Rs.	70	4	90
One clerk on Rs.	60	3	75
One Shorthand Writer and Typist on Rs.	30	2	40

3. As the grant of progressive pay is opposed to standing rules, the Financial Secretary suggests that opportunity might be taken to revise the staff of the District Court so as to ~~give to~~ give to the establishment fixed pay in lieu of progressive pay. Chief Court of Mysore,

C.S. BALASUNDARAM IYER, ESQ., B.A.,

Chief Secretary to the Government of Mysore,

Bangalore.

23 SEP 1918

Through

The Comptroller to the Government of Mysore,

Bangalore.

Sir,

The District Judge of Bangalore has represented that the original civil and criminal work in his court has been rapidly increasing as shewn in a statement submitted by him, of which a copy is enclosed, and that the work of the office has consequently become too heavy to be managed by the present establishment. The District Court establishment consists of only 11 hands which is less than the number employed in the Subordinate Judge's Court and in some of the Munsiffs' Courts.

18

Mr. Plumer, who has had the opportunity of presiding over the other two District Courts as well as Bangalore, has also represented that besides the heavy court work thrown on the establishment, it has to attend to the statistical and administrative work which is far heavier in the Bangalore Division than in the other two Divisions. It has also been stated that the miscellaneous work of the court has also increased out of all proportion and that more especially the exclusive jurisdiction of the District Court over all minors' cases in the Division has thrown additional work and responsibility on the establishment which has to help the court in the administration of the property of the minors.

3. Owing to the heavy office work all round the District Judge has stated that though the officials work from 11 A.M. to 8 P.M. daily inclusive of Sundays and most of the holidays, it is found very difficult to keep up to date and that therefore the establishment, in his opinion, requires to be strengthened by the addition of at least three hands as per margin.

One clerk on	Rs.	60-3-75,
One Munshi	"	50-2-60,
One Munshi	"	40-2-50.

4. I am directed to forward herewith for the information of the Government a comparative statement showing the average institutions in all the three District Courts and to state that the original civil work at Bangalore is almost double that at Mysore, besides the cases which the Bangalore District Judge has to deal with being of a more complicated nature. It will also be seen from the statement that the Bangalore District Court has the largest number of original cases both civil and criminal (sessions).

5. It has also been ascertained from the District Judge that there are now 162 minors' cases in the Bangalore District

Court

Court, of which in 62 cases accounts are being received and in the remaining 100 cases accounts have either been called for or to be called for, while in the Shimoga District Court there are only 30 minors' cases, and the cases in the Mysore District Court do not come up to half the number of the Bangalore District Court. The value of the property of the minors in the custody of the court in deposit in the treasury both in jewels and in cash amounts to Rs.2,13,860-11-9.

5 The Judges think that the increased court work itself requires an additional clerk and that for the minors' cases alone the services of one responsible official are absolutely necessary. They also think that the heavy statistical and administrative work of the Bangalore Division on account of the larger number of subordinate courts in the Division, viz., 10 courts against 8 and 6 courts in the Mysore and the Shimoga Divisions respectively, also require an additional hand. For these reasons I am to state that though each of the three District Courts is allowed the same establishment, viz. 11 hands as detailed in the margin, the Judges agree with Mr.Plumer in thinking that the establishment of his court is undermanned and that it requires to be strengthened by the addition of at least three more hands.

6 In order to secure the services of a better class of officials than are now employed in the subordinate courts, the Judges recommend that the scale of pay to the proposed additional hands may be as in the margin They are aware of the fact that as per Government Order

Proceedings of the Government of H.H. the Maharaja of Mysore.

C.S. 35-18—2

Read :-

Letter No. Book 1124 dated 5/8th October 1918 from the Comptroller to Government, forwarding duly verified the proposition statement for the revision of the establishment of the District Court, Bangalore, received from the Registrar, Chief Court, with his letter No.R.O.C. - 208 dated 18th September 1918, and stating that there is no margin for any further expenditure under the group "Protection and Army".

Order No. S-2705-6

Dated Bangalore, 4. 19

Having regard to the increased work of the Bangalore District Court, the large number of minors' cases to be disposed of and the heavy statistical and administrative work of the Division, the Chief Court have recommended the addition of 3 hands to the establishment of the District Court, as noted in the margin.

One clerk on Rs. 70-4-90.
" on Rs. 60-3-75.
One shorthand writer and typist. on Rs. 30-2-40.

2. The Government are satisfied that the increase is necessary and are pleased to sanction the recommendation of the Chief Court, with effect from 1st July 1919.

But as the appointing of progressive pay to ministerial appts is about to coming orders, they consider that the pay of the new hands may be fixed at the present Rs. 70, 60 and Rs 30 respectively. With this modification

3. Necessary provision for the purpose purpose will be made in the next year's budget.

4. The Chief Court will be requested to send up proposals in due course for replacing the progressive posts as they become vacant.
